Approved by the Governor, May 8, 2007.

CHAPTER 462

(House Bill 1227)

AN ACT concerning

Carroll County – Pretrial and Work Release Programs

FOR the purpose of authorizing the Sheriff of Carroll County to establish a pretrial release program that offers an alternative to pretrial detention and to adopt certain regulations; authorizing a court to order an individual to participate in the pretrial release program under certain conditions; authorizing the court to make the order at certain times; establishing certain eligibility requirements; authorizing the Sheriff to collect a certain fee from an individual participating in the program or waive or reduce the fee; altering the conditions under which a sentencing judge may not authorize an individual to participate in a work release program to restrict an individual that has charges pending for a certain crime of violence; altering the reasons for which an inmate, with certain approval, may leave confinement to participate in certain activities; repealing a certain provision that an inmate ordered to participate in certain rehabilitative activity may leave confinement under the supervision of the Sheriff; defining a certain term; making technical corrections; and generally relating to pretrial and work release programs in Carroll County.
